

Supporting employees who have a hearing loss

Up to 60% of remote Indigenous workers have occupationally significant hearing loss. This booklet outlines how supervisors and employers can support workers with hearing loss.

It covers:

- ✓ Recruitment and retention issues;
- ✓ Workplace communication including Meetings;
- ✓ Telephone use;
- ✓ Training strategies;
- ✓ How cultural and linguistic differences can mask hearing loss;
- ✓ Useful amplification devices for the work place.

The booklet is $29 each plus postage & handling.

If 10 or more copies are ordered, the booklets are $25 each plus postage & handling.
